Q#5 Are the results from last year's audit or financial review available?

Answer: Last year's audit is not available OR I cannot answer this question because I can't find the information.

Q#6 How many evaluations from the past three years does the organization share?

Answer: There are no evaluations from the past three years

Did the organization you are considering for donation receive a lower score than you think they deserved simply because they didn't share information with donors?

Call or write the organization and let them know they didn't provide you with the information you needed to make an educated funding decision. Organizations will only become more transparent when donors, like you, require and reward it.

Having evaluated Central Asia Institute do you still plan to donate to them?
